BATTALION

XO - MAJOR CHUNN

March has been the busiest month yet for the Wildcat Battalion. Inside the classroom, Cadets continued to familiarize themselves with the origins of the United States government and how it operates at an intermediate level. Learning about the articles of confederation and the United States constitution, the different branches of government, and comparisons between state and federal systems of governance. Senior Cadets took this a step further by touring the North Carolina General Assembly on March 22, meeting various senators and representatives by applying what they learned in class to the real world. In addition to this cadets also learned about first aid and how to administer it. Taking the first steps to becoming CPR certified.

Outside of the classroom, our Raider CO-ED team traveled to Buckingham, Virginia to compete in Nationals against the best of the best in 4th Brigade (North Carolina, South Carolina, West Virginia, Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware). Our raider team is the first and only team to qualify from Wake County. The Raider Team qualified to compete at Nationals in Kentucky in November.

This month as a Company we focused heavily on classwork. We got lots done and completed many assessments. The upper class took about 4 tests this month which averages out to about 1 test a week. The Senior class also went on a field trip to the General Assembly and learned a lot about how our local government works. Finally we learned about CPR and some basic first aid as a company.

BRAVO COMPANY

CO - CAPTAIN OCAMPO

Throughout the month of March, Bravo Cadets were able to come together to plan our upcoming Military Ball. This month we also focused on our Cadet Challenge, where we did specific exercises during PT to see how we've improved during these few months. Lastly, we were lucky enough to get knowledge for basic CPR and medical training from trained Cadets.
